

World Religious Beliefs Condensed for Runners
by John Farrow

Agnosticism - I do not know a good run.

Atheism - I don't believe in a good run.

Buddhism - A good run is not really a good run.

Calvinism - A good run is a hard run.

Catholicism - A good run is bad for you and you must go to confession.

Christian Science - A good run is all in your mind.

Confucianism - Confucius say run.

Existentialism - What is a good run anyway?

Hare Krishna - Run run rama rama.

Hedonism - There is nothing like a good run.

Hinduism - This run has happened before.

Islam - If you have a good run, it is the will of Allah.

Judaism - Why can't we have any good runs?

Protestantism - Only the righteous will have a good run.

Rastafarianism - Good running, good weed. No problem!

Seventh Day Adventist - Never on Saturday.

Stoicism - A hard run is the only way to run.

Taoism - Running happens.

Zen - What is the sound of a good run?

ARR News, July 1998
Albuquerque Road Runners Club